

An honest conversation regarding the employment of ex-offenders
Rebuilding Lives: Giving Second Chances Through Employment

An event for employers and human resources professionals

Date: Wednesday, May 5

Time: 9:00–11:00 a.m.

Location:

The United Way of Central Ohio

360 South Third Street
Columbus, Ohio 43215

(At the corner of Mound and Third Streets, Downtown Columbus)

Free parking available

Panelists:

- Randy Baker, Alvis House Community Reentry Center
- Tammy Fournier, Author and Community Advocate
- Fred Wilkes, Aryes Staffing
- Tracy Tyson-Parker, Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections
- Stephen Johnson-Grove, Ohio Justice and Policy Center

The United Way of Central Ohio, the Ohio Poverty Law Center, and the Central Ohio Pre-entry Collaboration invite you to attend the first in a series of reentry-focused Employer Awareness Workshops.

Rebuilding Lives: Giving Second Chances Through Employment will be an introduction to the employment of ex-offenders for employers and human resources professionals. The event will be led by a panel of reentry and employment experts and will provide attendees an opportunity to engage in an honest conversation with the experts.

The workshop is no cost to attendees, but registration is required. Please complete the registration form below and return it no later than Wednesday, April 28.

Refreshments provided by Tim Horton's.

Employer Awareness Workshop Registration

Please return to:

Melissa Lindsay
555 Buttles Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43215

Phone: 614-221-7201
Fax: 614-221-7625
E-mail:
mlindsay@ohiopoverlylaw.org

Name _____

Organization _____

Position _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____