6. Department of Justice-State and Local Reentry Courts-Second Chance Act	Creation of reentry courts similar to those established for non-violent offenders (possible 50% match). $10M total allocation. More specifically, Section 111 authorizes the creation of state, local, and tribal reentry courts to monitor offenders and provide them with the treatment services needed to establish a self-sustaining and law-abiding life. Modeled after the success of the drug court approach, reentry courts represent a relatively new form of jurisprudence. Focused on the back-end of the criminal justice system, the reentry court is designed to leverage partnerships between courts and corrections to facilitate successful offender reintegration. The concept of the reentry court necessitates considerable cooperation between corrections and local judiciaries, as it requires the coordination of the work of prisons and jails in preparing offenders for release and actively involving community corrections agencies and various community resources in transitioning offenders back into the community through active judicial oversight. http://www07.grants.gov/search/search.do;jsessionid=nKpwLWhKWZ1rHW339nlhCyPsZQLqJyQ6F5XhnW2kShJ6GZw2g2BZ!-195756103?oppld=53730&mode=VIEW	April 14 2010	June 3, 2010

8. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Programs-Weed and Seed Communities Competitive Program	The Weed and Seed strategy aims to prevent, control, and reduce violent crime, criminal drug-related activity, and gang activity. The Weed and Seed strategy is a community-based, comprehensive multi-agency approach. Four elements make up the two-pronged Weed and Seed Strategy: Law Enforcement; Community Policing; Prevention, Intervention, and Treatment; and Neighborhood Restoration. Limited discretionary grant resources are available annually for communities selected as Weed and Seed Communities subject to Congressional funding and level of grantee performance. A Weed and Seed Community (WSC) must be developed in partnership with a variety of key local organizations and the local United States Attorney’s Office (USAO). WSCs must work to reduce crime and improve the quality of life for residents in a community primarily through the redeployment of existing public and private resources, addressing both crime and social related problems that without proper intervention often lead to violent crime, drug abuse, and gang activity. http://www.grants.gov/search/search.do;jsessionid=4Fk6KRQF2pSq1Nx9r0INL_LFfhQM3QkZy6sDVnpFqGfrTjXJzdLvL!1834325596?oppId=47357&flag2006=false&mode=VIEW	May 13	Dec. 1 2009

Community Initiatives-Together Ohio Family Support Fund Grant
20. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration-Center for Substance Abuse Treatment-Offender Reentry Program	The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment is accepting applications for fiscal year (FY) 2010 grants for the Offender Reentry Program (hereafter referred to as ORP). The purpose of this program is to expand and/or enhance substance abuse treatment and related recovery and reentry services to sentenced juvenile and adult offenders returning to the community from incarceration for criminal/juvenile offenses. Applicants are expected to form stakeholder partnerships that will plan, develop and provide a transition from incarceration to community-based substance abuse treatment and related reentry services for the populations of focus. Because reentry transition must begin in the correctional or juvenile facility before release, limited funding may be used for certain activities in institutional correctional settings in addition to the expected community-based services. $39.6M. http://www.samhsa.gov/Grants/2010/TI-10006.aspx . 21. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Programs-Bureau of Justice Assistance-Sex Offender Management	Is pleased to announce additional support for the activities of the Center for Sex Offender Management (CSOM), a national project that provides assistance to state and local jurisdictions on the effective management of adult and juvenile sex offenders. CSOM is offering a limited amount of short-term technical assistance to jurisdictions to support the development of informed sex offender management policy. This is a time-limited initiative and, as such, the targeted delivery timeline for the assistance is between January and June, 2010. Participating jurisdictions will be selected through a competitive application process.	Dec. 4 2009	Dec. 31 2009
22. Department of Health and Human Services-Grants to Expand Substance Abuse Treatment Capacity	This program is designed to foster the development and utilization of local recovery-oriented systems of care to address gaps in treatment capacity by supporting person-centered and self-directed approaches for substance abuse treatment and recovery services in communities with serious drug problems.	Oct. 27 2009	Jan. 14 2010
23. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Programs-Increased Victim	This program is designed to develop replicable service/system models for comprehensive and culturally appropriate services for crime victims in Weed and Seed Communities who have faced particular types of victimization. Funding will support at least four demonstration projects that address the victim needs generated by environmental crime, gang-related violence, issues related to

26. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Program-Field-Initiated Demonstration Programs	OJJDP will award grants to programs that foster innovations and advancements in juvenile justice-related practice at the local, state, and tribal government levels. This program will be part of OJJDP’s comprehensive effort to support programs that demonstrate the practical implications for policy, practice innovative approaches, and enhance juvenile justice and delinquency prevention. This program will address a broad range of juvenile justice-related issues that support OJJDP’s mission

27. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Program-Youth Prevention and Intervention Program	OJJDP, in coordination with BJA, will fund programs to support multi-strategy, multidisciplinary approaches to reducing gang activity. These programs will enhance coordination of local resources in support of community partnerships that address risk factors to gang involvement, including a lack of social and economic opportunities; family disorganization, including broken homes and parental drug/alcohol abuse; and strong commitment to delinquent peers, but low commitment to positive peers.	March 31 2010	May 20 2010
28. Department of Justice-Office of Justice Program-Second Chance Act Juvenile Mentoring Initiative	OJJDP seeks to support mentoring programs that use a strengths-based, community engagement approach. Research suggests that programs in which the mentor and mentee work together to address a social issue, participate in community service, or become involved in other local civic activities have resulted in the mentees being involved in less delinquent behavior and becoming more involved in their communities..	March 11 2010	April 27 2010

73. Department of Commerce-Economic Development Assistant Recovery Act Program	Under this FFO, EDA will give priority consideration to those applications that will significantly benefit regions "that have experienced sudden and severe economic dislocation and job loss due to corporate restructuring," as stipulated under the Recovery Act. EDA provides financial assistance to distressed communities in both urban and rural regions. Such distress may exist in a variety of forms, including high levels of unemployment, low income levels, large concentrations of low-income families, significant declines in per capita income, large numbers (or high rates) of business failures, sudden major layoffs or plant closures, trade impacts, military base closures, natural or other major disasters, depletion of natural resources, reduced tax bases, or substantial loss of population because of the lack of employment opportunities. EDA's experience has shown that regional economic development to help alleviate these conditions is effected primarily through investments and decisions made by the private sector. Under the EDA American Recovery Program, EDA will help restore, replace and expand economic activity in regions that have experienced	March 5 2010	June 30 2010
